Havana/Santa Clara
Day 4
The gateway to Cuba’s historically and agriculturally rich central region in the province of Villa Clara, Santa Clara is a culturally active town that embodies the true essence of authentic Cuba. Long associated with Ernesto “Che” Guevara, this city, in the geographic center of the country, harbors new trends, unique attitudes, endless creativity and a lively youthful culture that has been shaped by the most prestigious university outside Havana. It also features one of the country’s most spectacular grand colonial theaters constructed in 1885. Visit the impressive Che Guevara Monument and the History Museum of the Revolution. Check into the HOTEL AMERICA. En route to dinner in a local restaurant, visit the beautiful Teatro La Caridad, one of the Eight Grand Theaters of the Cuban Colonial era, where famed musicians such as Enrico Caruso once performed.

The bustling artisans' market spread before Havana's 18th-century Cathedral San Cristóbal is an ideal venue to meet and interact with locals.
Inspired by Picasso and Gaudi, Cuban painter and sculptor José Rodríguez Fuster transformed his house and others in his Havana neighborhood, Jamantitas, with kaleidoscopic sculptures and mosaics.

People-to-People Cultural Enrichment:
- Special guided tour with an expert inside Santa Clara's grand colonial Teatro de la Caridad.

Santa Clara/Varadero

Day 5
Visit a typical Cuban Casa de Abuelos for a unique opportunity to learn more about social welfare in Cuba from the active senior citizen residents and staff. Afterwards, transfer to the beautiful town of Varadero located on the Hicacos Peninsula. Here, visit the Du Pont mansion, built in 1930 by chemical magnate Alfred Irene du Pont. Check into the deluxe Hotel Meliá Las Americas.

Varadero/Havana

Matanzas

Day 6
Transfer to Matanzas, called “the city of bridges” and the “Venice of Cuba” for its many pedestrian, auto and rail bridges crossing two major rivers, and the proud moniker “Athens of Cuba,” reflecting a legacy of poets, writers, painters and musicians.

The nearby charming fishing town of Cojímar is best known for Ernest Hemingway, affectionately called “Papa” by locals, and his hilltop farmhouse, Finca Vigía, where he wrote The Old Man and the Sea based on a local fisherman.

Check into the Meliá Cohiba Hotel.

Havana

Pinar del Río/Víañales Valley

Day 7
Cuba’s westernmost province, Pinar del Río, has a pleasant capital city surrounded by expansive farmlands famously spread over the Cordillera de Guaniguanico, one of the island’s three main mountain ranges.

Pinar del Río’s striking Víañales Valley—designated a UNESCO World Heritage site for its natural beauty and the preservation of its traditional architecture, crafts and way of life—is a much photographed and painted 270-square-mile plain surrounded by distinctive limestone karst hills the locals call mogotes. The farmland here is among Cuba’s richest, and the ancient agricultural practices produce robust coffee and some of the world’s best tobacco, products central to Cuban history and identity. Visit the community art therapy program in Pinar del Río.

People-to-People Cultural Enrichments:
- Experience why Cuban cigars are so celebrated throughout the world—meet
Hotel Nacional de Cuba

Hotel America
Located in the heart of Santa Clara, this small hotel has a distinctive Cuban feel.

Hotel Meliá Las Américas

✦ In the historic town of Pinar del Río, visit a community project where creativity is fostered to enable young people with Down syndrome to flourish as individual artists.

Havana Jaimanitas
Day 8
Cuba’s capital, the early-20th-century “Paris of the Caribbean,” remains arguably one of a kind, mixing impressive urban architecture and culture with an earthly, informal vibe and an energetic arts and music scene. Today, the cityscape has retained a distinctly vintage feel, sometimes nearly cinematically so, which is bolstered by the prevalence of 1950s American-made automobiles, fondly called “Yank tanks” by the locals who painstakingly maintain them.

Jaimanitas, a beach community in the Havana suburb Playa, is home to the Hemingway Marina and one of Cuba’s best known artists, José Rodriguez Fuster, a sculptor and painter whose elaborate and distinctive works of art are in a style inspired by Barcelona’s Antoni Gaudí.

People-to-People Cultural Enrichments:

✦ Interact with members of José Rodriguez Fuster’s community.

✦ Discuss a music performance with members of the Cuban Institute of Music.

✦ Cruise along in a private antique American-made car on the Malecón in Old Havana.

“People-to-People”: an Extraordinary Opportunity

When Christopher Columbus landed in Cuba in 1492 he was met by native Arawak Indians. Diego Velázquez de Cuéllar followed and settled the island, using deep Havana Harbor for a transit point back to Spain. It became a smuggler’s haven during the heyday of seafaring pirates, and when the sugarcane industry boomed in the early 1800s, mass numbers of slaves were imported and eventually left their indelible mark on the history of the Caribbean’s largest island. Visiting Cuba today, it is easy to see that the culture is still steeped in its rich history, which blends European, African, Asian and Middle Eastern influences. Along with the more recent historical events, including being a protectorate of the United States and the revolutionary lightning rod for 20th-century politics, Cuba is a lively and artistic tropical island filled with a native population said to be amongst the most welcoming and charming people in the world, who have myriad ways of revealing the secrets of their proud country to you.

Enjoy a walking tour led by a University of Havana professor on university and academic life in Cuba today and engage local architects to learn about preservation efforts in Havana. Meet musicians who will perform a classical music concert in the historic Ermita (Hermitage) de Monserrate. Travel into the agricultural core of the country to interact with local organic and traditional tobacco farmers. Converse with elder Cubans in a typical community Casa de Abuelos. Try rolling your r’s during a Spanish language lesson, learn more about local customs and enamorarse con la gente de Cuba (fall in love with the people of Cuba).

Linger in Old Havana and observe the distinctive Cuban rhythm of this UNESCO World Heritage site.
The agricultural province of Pinar del Río is home to the fertile Viñales Valley, a UNESCO World Heritage site, where farmers notably grow much of the world’s premium cigar tobacco.
